WUDU Bowl & Stool

Product Code: WUDU-BS

The ceramic Wudu basin with stool is manufactured from high quality white ceramic. The compact basin and separate stool allow ritual cleansing to be performed easily and after use the stool slides over the basin to take up the minimum amount of space. The mixer tap has an extendable spray hose and head to allow the user to direct the water exactly where they require.
The Wudu ablution unit with separate stool is specifically designed for the Islamic purification ritual of Wudu, making them ideal for Islamic faith schools or schools with a large number of Muslim students. Designed specifically for one user at a time the basins and stools are compact, strong and easy to clean.
